

2004/2005/2006 CISV Jacksonville Chapter Facts in Brief

In 2006, CISV Jacksonville, among other activities:

- Hosted "Faces of Jacksonville," a two-week overnight local multi-cultural camp modeled on the CISV Village format for local students;
- Hosted children from 12 different countries at a 3-week international Village;
- Hosted an Interchange from Slovenia and sent an Interchange delegation to Brazil;
- Sent delegates to Villages in Norway, Denver, and Jacksonville (Faces);
- Sent delegates to a Summer Camp in Hamburg, Germany;
- Sent one delegate to Seminar Camp in Costa Rica, one delegate to a Seminar Camp in Luxembourg and one delegate to a Seminar Camp in Perth, Australia;
- Sent a Junior Counselor to Detroit;
- Sent six delegates and an adult leader to an International Youth Meeting in Munich, Germany
- Sent numerous Junior Branch Members and adult leaders to the CISV National Youth Meeting in Dallas;
- Hosted one local and one regional mini-camp;
- Maintained an active Junior Branch program all year long;
- Provided scholarships aggregating approximately $8,500.

In 2005, CISV Jacksonville, among other activities:

- Hosted "Faces of Jacksonville," a two-week overnight local multi-cultural camp modeled on the CISV Village format for local students;
- Hosted teens from 4 different US Chapters of CISV, including a delegation of 4 from Jacksonville, at the first ever CISV National Summer Camp;
- Hosted an Interchange from Brazil and sent Interchange delegations to Sweden and Italy;
- Sent delegates to two different Villages in Norway, and to a Village in Dallas, Texas;
- Sent delegates to a Summer Camp in Sao Paulo, Brazil;
- Sent a delegate to Seminar Camp in Detroit, Michigan;
- Sent one Junior Counselor to Sweden and one Junior Counselor to Chattanooga, Tennessee;
- Sent eleven Junior Branch members and two adult leaders to CISV National Youth Meeting in Detroit, Michigan;
- Maintained an active Junior Branch program all year long;
- Hosted a regional Junior Branch "mini-camp";
- Provided a full scholarship of $1,550 and a partial scholarship of $500.

In 2004, CISV Jacksonville, among other activities:

- Hosted "Faces of Jacksonville," a two-week overnight local multi-cultural camp modeled on the CISV Village format for local students;
- Hosted children from 11 different countries at "Paradise Village," 4-week international Village;
- Hosted Interchanges from Denmark and Italy;
- Sent delegates to Villages in Denmark, Faroe Islands, and Finland;
- Sent delegates to a Summer Camp in Cincinnati, Ohio;
- Sent a delegate to Seminar Camp in Ottawa, Canada;
- Sent a Junior Counselor to Sweden;
- Sent four Junior Branch members and an adult leader to CISV National Youth Meeting in Pennsylvania;
- Maintained an active Junior Branch program all year long;
- Provided a full scholarship in the amount of $2,616 and partial scholarships aggregating $2,218.

Jacksonville Chapter of Children's International Summer Villages, Inc.
2148 Mango Place, Jacksonville, FL 32207 www.jax.cisvusa.org (904) 306-0820

