President's Letter

by Val Chritton

The Jacksonville Chapter is off to another great year! We had a successful and well attended Fall Membership Meeting. Special thanks go to Christine Mack, our Hospitality Chair. Also, the Junior Branch sponsored a Harvest Festival featuring face-painting, square dancing, the Haunted House of Feelings and lots of fun.

This past weekend, sixteen members of the Jacksonville Chapter — including six members of our Junior Branch — attended the CISV National Board Meeting (NBM) in Cincinnati. We picked up many great, new ideas for our Chapter, including "MOSAIC," a new program that will replace Local Work. Our Junior Branch is especially excited about Mosaic and already has an outline for a project. We will let you know more about Mosaic in our next newsletter. By the way, congratulations to Adrienne Divertie and Emily Hyde, who were elected to serve on

Annual Fall Banquet and Membership Meeting

by Val Chritton

More than 135 members attended the October 2 - Annual Fall Banquet and General Membership Meeting. Following a brief business meeting, presentations by this year's

CISV program participants gave us a brief look into their expanded world experiences. A wonderful dinner compliments of Carraba's, Sierra Grille, Woody's, Harris Teeter, Publix and Winn-Dixie was organized by Christine Mack. Sincere thanks to Christine for coordinating this special dining experience.

The Jacksonville Chapter wishes to recognize and thank everyone for your support this year. CISV Parents, we gratefully acknowledge your vision and courage in choosing to send

First Ever Junior Branch Regional Mini-Camp!!!

by Adrienne Divertie

"Stereotypes" was the theme for the 42 of us attending the JB mini-camp on Sept 9-11 at Camp Suwannee. Unfortunately, Hurricane Katrina prevented members from Atlanta and Gulf Coast chapters from participating as they had intended. The JB board did all the program planning. Through fun activities we become more aware of our own prejudices and tendency to stereotype others.

Mackenzie Crane, Alice Dughi, Caitlin Stewart, Charlotte Rea on the way to minicamp

One participant cited the performances of "Cinderella" as his favorite activity. The classic fairy tale was acted out as if by four stereotypical groups: blondes, Muslims, African Americans and "Born again Christians". Although perhaps a bit exaggerated there were certainly some memorable performances including Katie Chritton as a "born again", Lizzie Lufrano as a blonde Cinderella and Chase Divertie as a "pimp fairy god daddy".

Despite the intense topic the weekend was not all work

"What is Junior Branch anyway?"

This question was recently posed by a newly returned village delegate!

Junior Branch is the backbone of CISV; its what were all about! Every future and past CISV and FACES delegate is a member. Adults over the age of 25 can participate as chaperones. The Junior branch gives its members an opportunity to stay connected and get to know each other better while participating in fun activities. More importantly our mission is to spread the by Adrienne Divertie message of "peace through understanding" in our community. Those of us on the board have the opportunity to attend local and national leadership training and use our skills planning the JB events. We are having a lot of fun...most of our events are attended by 20-40 participants. As one JBer put it, "JB is the one place where I can be myself". Come see for yourself!

and no play. We all enjoyed s'mores around a campfire, sing-a-long with guitarists Emily Hyde and Ben Blackshear and pick-up basketball in the gym. The JB would like to thank Jodi

Helen Parker, David Weinstein in "Cinderella" at minicamp

Dughi and Anne Lucas their camp planners and Chris Banks, Joe Hofrichter, Leah Donelin, Eleanor Fails,

the planning committee for the National Youth Meeting to be held in Dallas next May.

We are very excited about our program opportunities for 2006. We are one of the few US Chapters who will have a Summer Camp opportunity — in Hamburg, Germany. With the World Cup games to be held in Germany next summer, participants in the Hamburg Summer Camp will be close to the action. We also drew some great Village opportunities for 2006.

New to NBM this year were mandatory training sessions for the Local Leadership Training chairs. We were ably represented in these meetings by our Local Training co-chairs, Leah Donelan and Viky Divertie. We also heard an interesting presentation on a possible effort to “rebrand”

CISV.

Thanks to all of you have been so tireless in your efforts and so generous with your time on behalf of CISV.

It takes all of us working together to keep our Jacksonville Chapter so strong.

Reflective Practices Process Continues by Val Chritton

We continue to strengthen our organization through Reflective Practice pursuant to the generous grant received from the Jessie Ball duPont Community Building Fund at The Community Foundation. Sixteen members of the board and reflective practice team participated in a retreat facilitated by Linda Duhon at Montgomery Conference Center over the weekend of August 19-21, 2005. In addition, the entire Junior Branch Board and Joe Hofrichter participated in the retreat. Casey Rubinoff of the Washington, D.C. chapter facilitated the separate Junior Branch meetings.

Much of the retreat was spent in finalizing the board restructure effort. A new structure geared to a more compact and efficient board was approved. In order to implement the new structure, the following motion to amend the Jacksonville Chapter bylaws was submitted to a vote of and approved by the membership at the Fall Meeting held October 2, 2005:

It is moved that the Jacksonville Chapter Constitution and Bylaws be amended as follows:

1. To provide that the elected officers of the chapter shall be a president, vice president-programs, vice president-operations, secretary, and treasurer;

2. To reduce the size of the board to (a) elected officers of the Jacksonville Chapter, (b) Immediate Past President, (c) the Representative to the CISV National Board of Trustees, (d) one Youth Representative elected by the Junior Branch, (e) chairpersons of the following committees:

Fundraising, Budget/Long-Range Planning, Communications, Hosted Camps Planner, Recruiting, Camps, Interchange, Local Work, and Training; (f) up to three Presidential Appointees (g) the Junior Branch Advisor; and (h) the Risk Manager;

3. To reduce the number of board meetings to at least six per year;

4. To change the quorum for board meetings from ten members to a majority of the members;

5. To specify that board action is by affirmative vote of majority of members present;

6. To define the “Executive Committee” of the Board as the elected officers, the Immediate Past President, the Risk Manager, and the National Trustee and to authorize certain actions which can be taken by the Executive Committee;

7. to provide that for the term beginning August 1, 2007, the Chapter Trustee to the National Board of Trustees shall be elected for a term of three years by majority vote at the Jacksonville Chapter’s spring general meeting (in accordance with new National policy); and

8. To provide that the bylaws may be amended by the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Board of Directors, upon notice in writing of the proposed amendments at least ten days in advance of the board meeting at which such amendments are to be considered.

The immediate next steps in the process are to finalize job descriptions for every aspect of our operations. That effort is underway.

Attention All 13 and 14 year olds! Jax-CISV to Host Interchange with Nova Gorica, Slovenia in 2006

We have some very exciting news for our Interchange program this year. For the very first time, Jacksonville is partnering with Slovenia. This is a rare opportunity to pioneer new relationships with families in this jewel of a country.

Nestled between the Alps and the Adriatic Sea next to the Italian border, Nova Gorica, Slovenia has a diverse range of attractions and terrain covering 324 sq. Km. The population is 42,000, many of whom work for the 1100 different businesses in the area. Before World War I, Nova Gorica supplied roses to the Emperor's court in Vienna. Today roses and numerous gardens decorate the town.

The mild winters and long hours of sunshine in the Mediterranean-influenced climate give the area a special charm and amiability. A number of beautiful castles cluster around the town. The Gorica Museum is based in Kromberk Castle, and houses permanent collections covering archaeology, ethnology and history of art. The best view of the Vipava Valley, a valley famous for its fine, genuine wines and delicious prosciutto, is provided by the mediaeval castle of Rihemberk. In the summer this jewel of the Middle Ages becomes a place for people to meet and for events and performances.

The Slovenia interchange begins with Jacksonville hosting first for four weeks in July 2006 and continues with traveling to Slovenia for four weeks in July 2007. The three boy and three girl delegates must have birthdays between June 1, 1991 - August 31, 1993. Applications are due December 15, 2005. If you are interested in applying, please call Terry Yip at 620-8191 or e-mail rodriguezyp@comcast.net. All applications should be sent to:

Nataliya Taran,
5497 Hidden Ridge Dr.,
Jacksonville, FL 32257

Thank you to our Jax-CISV Interchange Committee for making this opportunity possible.

CISV GULF COAST RELIEF

By Janie Jones

In early September Hurricane Katrina hit the Gulf Coast of the United States with devastating consequences. Among those greatly affected by the storm are members of our CISV Gulf Coast Chapter. On September 6, CISV National established a Gulf Coast Relief Project to respond to some of the needs of our CISV members in the affected area.

There was no loss of life, but many families have lost everything. Some families have had significant wind and water damage, but their homes are still standing. Some families have suffered water damage, but are able to salvage things. This communication from Wendy and Ted Teisman on Sept. 6 provides some first hand information about the losses our CISV families have suffered:

"Many of you know how hard the Gulf Coast CISV chapter has been hit by Hurricane Katrina from TV. Many of our families have LOST their homes and businesses. If you've ever visited Biloxi for training or a camp, just imagine those buildings being wiped away completely. If there is debris left, it is so small that you can't tell where it came from. Other families' homes flooded ruining everything ...but they are thankful to still have walls. Some families were lucky enough not to have much damage, but have been without running water, power, and phones since

Right now it is difficult to find out where people are staying and how to reach them. These are the things I know for certain: Alys and Chip Donovan, William and Martha Harper, Tracy Butirich, Peggy Butera, Sybil and Zach Harrison all lost everything. Denise Longino probably lost her home, too. Doug Rackley's house flooded. Linda and John Welter's house OK. As far as I know, everyone is alive and safe!! There are many more families that I have no information about right now.

The CISV Executive Committee responded to the disaster by establishing a relief fund. Money collected from CISV chapters and individuals will be used to help the CISV Gulf Coast families who have suffered losses from the hurricane. The Executive Committee will be meeting at the National Board meeting to decide how best to use the funds. Chuck Catania, the national coordinator for the relief fund said, "The intent of these donations is to go directly into the hands of CISV Gulf Coast families. We are looking for assistance from CISV Gulf Coast to help us decide how these funds would best be distributed. Knowing the total amount of money to be distributed will set some of the parameters as well." As of Wednesday, Sept. 28, $3595.00 has been received, $1000.00 of which came from CISV Japan!

On September 29, Wendy Teisman sent brief reports on the status of various families. She concludes with this observation:

"Communication with the Gulf Coast chapter members is improving, but still lacking. Some home phones are still not working and it will take several tries to get through the circuits. Also, many people are back on-line with email. There are still so many families that I don't know about yet! I can say from the reports I am getting...it is going to take years for the Gulf Coast to rebuild. Many people had house insurance that does not cover the 'storm surge' which is classified as a separate flood event. With the essential bridges, roads down and many traffic lights not working, a drive that used to take 20 minutes now takes 1 and half hours. There are many distribution centers giving out clothing, food, etc. The mail is running again, so a little note to someone you know would be a very uplifting thing to them! Thanks to everyone who has made a donation to CISV!! You know you are making a difference!"

Here's how you can help.

1. To make a donation to help the CISV Gulf Coast victims of Hurricane Katrina, send your check to the National Treasurer:

3. I have received a number of emails regarding the status of families in the Gulf Coast chapter. ## Recruiting: Our Chance to Spread the Light!

by Amy Crane

“There are two ways of spreading light; to be the candle or the mirror that reflects it.” So said author Edith Wharton and to me, it sounds as if she must have been thinking about our work with CISV.

Our Villagers, Interchangers, J.B.ers, and the like, certainly are the candles. Their personal stories speak volumes about what their CISV experiences have meant to them.

As parents, leaders and volunteers, it falls to us to be their mirrors. We have a tremendous opportunity – and some would say responsibility – to make sure that others in our community know about the singular experiences available to people through our Jacksonville Chapter.

By the time you receive this newsletter, we will have held four Information Sessions for summer 2006 programs at the Mango Street Office. But remember, applications are not due until December 15, 2005. There is still time to reach out to that one colleague, friend, parishioner who you thought would be interested in CISV.

Better yet, take time now to think of how you can help in recruiting efforts throughout the year. Speaking opportunities at your school, employee events, or civic associations can be supported with a Power Point presentation and materials. Help us by making contacts at places you frequent like your health club, daycare center, church, or synagogue.

Hopefully, our recruiting efforts will be fruitful. But we’ll only be truly successful if more and more families know about the opportunity and magic of CISV programs. Help us spread the light!

For more information on recruiting, contact Amy Crane, 260-4056.

Faces of Jacksonville Village Does the Ultimate Local Work Activity

by Carol Daniels

When the tragic earthquake struck Pakistan, the first question we asked was "How is our friend Saman?" The leader of the Muslim group had gone back to Pakistan to study in Karachi. We contacted her by email and found out she is fine, but saddened by all the suffering in her country. We discovered that winter was coming very soon and the winters in Pakistan are extremely cold. Faces decided we had to do something to help our friend and her countrymen. The idea of knitting scarves was something we could do with the wool and needles that had been donated for next year's village. Layla's mother, Alisha, and Aalia's mother, Aysha, heard of our interest in this project and volunteered sweat shirts that we could decorate and send to Saman with the scarves. The Islamic Center had had a fund raiser and with some of the donations bought 300 shirts for Faces and the

New This Year - Interchange Overnight on January 20, 2006

by Theresa Levy

As a part of the application process, all potential delegates for the Slovenian Interchange will participate in an overnight at the South Jacksonville Presbyterian Church in San Marco on Friday, January 20 starting at 7:30 PM. with a pizza dinner and ending Saturday morning with pickup at 9:00 AM. The purpose of this evening is for the potential delegates to get acquainted, do some team building activities, and begin to understand the CISV philosophy first hand. It is also an opportunity for experienced CISV leaders to get to know the potential delegates and see how they participate in group activities away from their parents. Many of the evening's activities will be run by Al Emerick. Al is a Jacksonville celebrity personality and CISV dad with lots of experience in advertising, Improv Jacksonville, team building, and is currently the Director of Hubbard House.

Al is a very funny guy who knows a lot about helping kids feel at ease, assisting them in getting acquainted, and having fun! If you are interested in being a delegate for Interchange, this is a must attend event for you! Questions? Call Theresa Levy 731-8772 or e-mail TheresaLevy@msn.com.
